

Food Sharing Resource List

This is a list of some local community resources that could build capacity behind a community-building project idea and offer opportunities for community engagement. They are listed in alphabetical order. Please use this list for your own reference; it is not intended to be used for solicitation or marketing purposes. This is not a comprehensive list. If you know of any resources to add, email outreach@ourunitedvillages.org.

NAME	DESCRIPTION	CONTACT INFORMATION
Agri-Business Council of Oregon	Works to educate and inform Oregonians about agriculture's importance to the economy and lifestyle of Oregon.	1200 NW Naito Pkwy #290 Portland, OR 97209 (503)241-1487 info@aglink.org http://www.aglink.org
Alberta Co-op Grocery Store	Community owned store focused on providing healthy local food to their customers. A community resource and gathering place, providing fresh, high-quality, affordable food to the diverse members of North and Northeast Portland. Products from local, organic, and socially responsible sources, and work to build connections between our customers and	1500 NE Alberta St. (503) 287-4333 http://www.albertagrocery.coop info@albertagrocery.coop
City of Portland: Bureau of Planning and Sustainability Be Resourceful Campaign	Be Resourceful In the Kitchen. Offering free menu planners and grocery planners.	http://www.portlandonline.com/bps/index.cfm?c=53145
City of Portland: Bureau of Planning and Sustainability - Food Policy and Programs	The Office of Sustainable Development focuses on policy and programs that support local, sustainable agriculture, economic development in the region, and access to healthy, culturally appropriate food for all residents. The Office works with the citizen-based Portland Multnomah Food Policy Council to advise elected officials on issues regarding food access, land use planning issues, local food purchasing plans and many other policy	Portland, Oregon http://www.portlandonline.com/osd/index.cfm?c=41480 bps@ci.portland.or.us Steve Cohen, Food Policy and Programs,
Chefs Collaborative	Chefs Collaborative works with chefs and the greater food community to celebrate local foods and foster a more sustainable food supply. The Collaborative inspires action by translating information about our food into tools for making knowledgeable purchasing decisions. Through these actions, our members embrace seasonality, preserve diversity and traditional practices, and support local economies.	Portland, OR http://www.portlandcc.org/ info@portlandcc.org Contact Person: Debra Sohm Lawson, Director of Food and
Community Food Matters	Community Food Matters works to increase economic, environmental, and human health in rural and urban communities through the development of sustainable food systems. Through service learning and service scholarship, we do this in three ways: 1. Convene real and virtual spaces for learning and networking 2. Collect and share information about the state of the region's food system 3. Help catalyze responses to identified gaps and	Portland State University - SUSP/SCH PO Box http://www.pdx.edu/sustainability/community-food-systems hammerj@pdx.edu Contact Person: Janet Hammer
Community Food Security Coalition	Dedicated to building strong, sustainable, local and regional food systems that ensure access to affordable, nutritious, and culturally appropriate food for all people at all times. Seeks self-reliance among all communities in obtaining their food and to create a system of growing, manufacturing, processing, making available, and selling food that is regionally	3830 SE Division St. Portland, OR 97202 (503)954-2970 http://www.foodsecurity.org
Cooking Up a Story	Cooking Up a Story (CUoS) is an online television series (and blog) about people, food, and sustainable living. CUoS offers a variety of original, short form video programming that examines our food system, up close and personal. We bring you unique documentary stories about farmers and ranchers, food artisans, and others whose lives center around	http://cookingupastory.com/ rebecca@cookingupastory.com Contact Person: Rebecca Gerendasy

NAME	DESCRIPTION	CONTACT INFORMATION
Eat Local Challenge	The Eat Local Challenge was originally introduced in 2005 and has been modified for year-round use by Ecotrust	Ecotrust Attn: Eat Local Challenge 721 NW http://www.eatlocal.net/
Eco Trust's Food and Farms Program	Works to improve public understanding of local agriculture and increase the market share of locally grown food. Farm to school programs, events, tool kits "Building Local Food Networks: A Toolkit for Organizers", learning communities (http://www.localfoodnetworks.net) and Salmon Nation (http://www.salmonnation.com).	721 NW 9 th Ave, Suite 200 Portland, OR 97209 (503)467-0763 http://www.ecotrust.org/foodfarms
Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon Interfaith Food and Farms Partnership	Empowers faith communities, farmers, and neighborhoods to build rural-urban alliances and create innovative partnerships for just and sustainable food systems. Programs include: buying clubs, cooking classes, community gardens, and farm stands, and community food assessments.	0245 SW Bancroft St. Suite B Portland, OR 97239 (503) 221-1054 foodandfaith@emoregon.org http://www.emoregon.org/food-farms.php
Edible Portland	Edible Portland is both a magazine and website. Edible Portland's goal is to be a resource that makes eating, growing, and enjoying Portland's local abundance an everyday pleasure. Edible Portland serves the greater Portland metropolitan area including Hood River and the Willamette Valley.	c/o Ecotrust 721 NW 9th Ave, Suite 200 http://www.edibleportland.com lford@ecotrust.org Contact Person: Deborah Kane, Publisher
Food-based Ecological Education Design	Food-based Ecological Education Design (FEED) empowers youth through food and gardening to achieve a good life. FEEDS has a long-term vision where schools and communities, keeping children at the center, evolve a food and garden-based pedagogy.	PO Box 751 615 SW Harrison http://web.pdx.edu/~feed/mission.htm Contact Person: Prمود Parajuli: pramodp@pdx.edu Dilafroz Williams: williamsdi@pdx.edu
Food For Oregon: The Community Food Programs Database	Food for Oregon is a strategic partnership between Oregon Food Bank and Oregon State University Extension Service. The website contains a searchable database of non-emergency community food programs in Oregon and Southwest Washington.	Oregon State University Corvallis, OR 97331- http://foodfororegon.oregonstate.edu/ Contact Person: Scott Reed, Vice Provost,
Food for Thought Café	Food for Thought Cafe is a small, student run cafe at Portland State University that embodies sustainability principles. The cafe is open during Fall, Winter, and Spring terms and supports the expansion of food choices at PSU that include: locally and sustainably grown food, less packaging, more recycling and composting, affordable, good food, living wages and working conditions, and community-based management.	Location: Smith Memorial Union Building Mailing Address: Food for Thought Cafe c/o (503) 725-4736 http://www.fftcafe.pdx.edu/about/fft@pdx.edu
Food Front Cooperative Grocery	Food Front is a consumer cooperative building a vibrant community and a healthier world by selling wholesome food and empowering people.	Food Front Northwest 2375 NW Thurman St. Food Front Hillsdale 6344 SW Capitol (503)222-5658 http://www.foodfront.coop info@foodfront.coop

NAME	DESCRIPTION	CONTACT INFORMATION
Food Innovation Center	The Food Innovation Center (FIC) offers one stop access to important services for food producers, processors, marketers, and entrepreneurs. It operates through a partnership between Oregon State University and the Oregon Department of Agriculture. Their staff of technologists, engineers, economists and business professionals has a breadth of real-world experience and depth of technical skills that foster the success of food and agricultural	1207 NW Naito Parkway, Portland, OR 97209 http://fic.oregonstate.edu/ Contact Person: Aaron Johnson, Program Leader for Food
Food Not Bombs	Provides free vegan meals Mon-Sat. in local gathering spaces. All sites serve at 5:30pm.	pdxfnb@lists.riseup.net foodnotbombs@planet-save.com http://www.foodnotbombs.net
Food Not Lawns	Turning yards into gardens and neighborhoods into communities. Offers educational services such as garden design, community workshops, and community seed swaps.	foodnotlawns@yahoo.com http://www.foodnotlawns.net
Friends of Family Farmers	Friends of Family Farmers (FOFF) is an all-volunteer, citizens	PO Box 133 Colton, OR 97017 http://www.friendsoffamilyfarmers.org/Frien info@friendsoffamilyfarmers.org
Friends of Portland Community Gardens	Friends of Portland Community Gardens (FPCG) is a volunteer nonprofit organization working primarily with Portland Parks and Recreation. FPCG is dedicated to the improvement, advocacy, and expansion of local community gardening. Portland Community Gardens offers free weekly organic gardening classes for children ages 6-12 at three community gardens around Portland, as well as a weeklong summer day camp.	Portland, Oregon http://www.friendspdxgardens.org/ Contact: Mara Reynolds, Alice Froehlich General: info@friendspdxgardens.org Child program: childgard@ci.portland.or.us
Garden of Wonders at Abernethy Elementary School	The mission of the Garden of Wonders is to create and sustain an organic garden and landscape which is wholly integrated into the school. Involves students in the stewardship of the school's organic garden and landscape through education, wellness and community building.	Abernethy Elementary School 2421 SE Orange, Portland 97214 info@gardenofwonders.org http://www.gardenofwonders.org Contact Person: Linda Colwell, Director
Gardener to Farmer	Edible Garden Coaching, Garden Writing, Garden Marketing Strategist	Jean Ann Van Krevelen jeanann@gardenertofarmer.com (503) 412-9837 http://www.gardenertofarmer.com
Generous Ventures Gleaners	Generous Ventures is a nonprofit organization formed in 1989 of all volunteers that gather gleaned and salvaged food to distribute to low-income, elderly and homeless people.	6148 SE 111th Ave Portland, OR 97266 http://www.oregonmetro.gov/index.cfm/go /by.web/id=742&do=detail&rid=82
Golden Harvesters Inc.	Golden Harvesters is a volunteer-run organization that has been providing food and other goods to low-income families, senior citizens and the disabled since 1988.	6825 N Willamette Blvd., Portland http://www.oregonmetro.gov/index.cfm/go /by.web/id=742&do=detail&rid=181
Groundwork Portland	Inspires communities to clean up contaminated land and transform it into community assets.	2407 SE 49 th Ave. Portland, OR 97206 (503) 467-4567 http://groundworkportland.org/

NAME	DESCRIPTION	CONTACT INFORMATION
Growing Gardens	Digs at the root of hunger in Portland by building organic home gardens in urban backyards, creating school garden clubs for future veggie eaters and cultivators and hosting learn and grow classes covering cooking, preserving & more.	2003 NE 42 nd Ave. #3 Portland, OR 97213 (503) 284-8420 http://www.growing-gardens.org
Hood River County Fruit Loop	The Fruit Loop is a 35-mile, scenic drive through the Hood River valley's orchards, forests, farmlands, and friendly communities. The drive offers farms, farm stands, vineyards, wineries, unique places to eat and shop for local products, as well as special events and celebrations.	PO Box 168 Odell, OR 97044 http://www.hoodriverfruitloop.com info@hoodriverfruitloop.com
Home Orchard Society	Home Orchard Society is a nonprofit educational organization dedicated to assisting both novice and expert growers and promoting the science, culture, and pleasure of growing fruit.	P.O. Box 230192 Tigard, Oregon 97281 http://www.homeorchardsociety.org arboretum@homeorchardsociety.org Contact Person: Karen Tillou
Independence Gardens	We work with our customers to create new garden spaces and problem-solve any number of issues in their gardens. Offering classes for $10.	info@IndependenceGardensPDX.com
Janus Youth Programs: Urban Agricultural Services	Village Gardens is a 60,000 sq ft. urban garden providing gardening and farming access to low-income residents in North Portland. Offers family garden plots, employment, after-school programs and clubs and more. Food Works is a youth employment and empowerment program that engages young people in all aspects of planning, growing, selling, and donating produce.	707 NE Couch St. Portland, OR 97232 (503) 233-6090 http://www.janusyouth.org/what-we-do/urban-agriculture-services.php
Learning Gardens Laboratory	The Learning Garden Laboratory (LGL) is an 11-acre garden education site located in Southeast Portland that provides K-12, undergraduate, and graduate students hands on experience and education in sustainable gardening and healthy nutrition.	6801 SE 60th Ave., Portland, OR 97206 http://www.pdx.edu/elp/learning-gardens-laboratory
Livingscape	Livingscape is a sustainably-focused garden, kitchen and outdoor store. We promote what we call "engaged living" ... that is, engaged with place (the Pacific NW), food, and people (friends, family, community).	3926 N. Vancouver Avenue, Portland, 97227 503.248.0104 livingscapenursery@gmail.com www.livingscape.com
Loaves and Fishes Centers: The Meals-On-Wheels People	Loaves & Fishes Centers is a nonprofit, secular organization that provides hot, nutritious meals to seniors 60 years and older. Hot noon meals are delivered by volunteers each weekday to homebound seniors. Loaves & Fishes Centers also serves a noon lunch to active seniors at 35 meal centers throughout Multnomah, Washington and Clark Co.	7710 SW 31st Avenue PO Box 19477 http://www.loavesandfishesonline.org
Local Harvest	Use this website to find farmers' markets, family farms, and other sources of sustainably grown food in your area, where you can buy produce, grass-fed meats, and many other goodies.	http://www.localharvest.org
Lost Arts Kitchen	Learn not only how to bake bread, make cheese, roast a whole chicken, and practice other lost culinary arts, but how to incorporate slow food traditions into your fast paced modern life. Find out how you can bring economy, organization, and time management into your kitchen, reduce your food bill, and enjoy delicious, nutritious meals at home.	13228 NE Eugene Street Portland, OR 97230 (503) 253-7331 http://www.lostartskitchen.com

NAME	DESCRIPTION	CONTACT INFORMATION
Meet-Up Portland	Find or Start a Meet Up Group. Many groups have already formed related to food sharing (e.g. Simple Living, SE/NE Portland Urban Gardening, Portland Permaculture, and Micro-Farming & Permaculture).	http://www.meetup.com/cities/us/or/portland/
Metro GreenScene	Metro GreenScene features sustainable living tools, seasonal nature notes and stories about outstanding people and places. Plus you'll find hundreds of nature activities, paddle trips, bike rides, bird walks, volunteer ventures and natural gardening workshops offered all around the region.	http://www.oregonmetro.gov/index.cfm/go/by.web/id=24231 http://calendar.oregonmetro.gov/events/
Montavilla Food Co-op	Come join our committed and motivated group of Montavilla neighbors and friends working together to provide residents and friends of Montavilla with year-round access to fresh, delicious, affordable food & produce in a comfortable, inclusive shopping experience.	PO Box #13382 Portland, OR 97213 haleycsmith@yahoo.com 503-867-5330. http://www.montavilla.coop/
Montavilla Food Buying Club	We are a group of individuals in the Montavilla/Mt. Tabor neighborhoods who buy food and other necessities cooperatively in bulk to get the best price. We are focused mainly on buying locally and choosing organic items when possible.	jenpolis@gmail.com 503-545-7233 http://groups.yahoo.com/group/MontavillaFBC/
Muddy Boot Organic Festival	The annual Muddy Boot Organic Festival is a city-wide festival held in September celebrating local organic foods and sustainable living in Portland, Oregon.	2408 SE 16th Avenue Portland, Oregon http://www.muddyboot.org/index.php info@muddyboot.org
Northeast Emergency Food Program	Meets the urgent food needs of North and Northeast residents while working to develop community solutions to secure access to adequate, affordable and healthy food. 3-5 day supply of nutritious groceries to neighbors in crisis. Offering community gardening opportunities, coordinating neighborhood food workshops, educating and empowering around local food issues, building community partnerships.	4800 NE 72nd Ave. Portland, OR 97218 http://www.emoregon.org/NE_food_program nepf@emoregon.org
Northeast Portland Tool Library (NEPTL)	Northeast Portland Tool Library works towards a future where Portland is vibrant, sustainable, and a thriving city for people of all income levels by providing homeowners, renters, and business owners of the Northeast with tools and the knowledge to use them. Hours: Wednesday 5:30pm-7:30pm, Saturday 9am-2pm	5431 NE 20th Avenue Portland, OR 97211 Located in the basement at Redeemer Lutheran Church (enter on Killingsworth) http://www.neptl.org
North Portland Tool Library (NPTL)	The North Portland Tool Library (NPTL) is a community resource dedicated to building community and fostering sustainability by providing residents with tools and the power to use them. Registration free to all residents of North Portland.	2209 North Schofield St., Portland, OR 97217 http://www.northportlandtoolibrary.org/ (503) 823-0209 NoPoTool_Library@yahoo.com
Northwest Resistance Against Genetic Engineering	Dedicated to promoting the responsible, sustainable and just use of agriculture and science. We are working towards a ban on genetic engineering and patents on life. Our efforts focus on education, community building, advocacy and action.	http://www.nwrage.org info@nwrage.org
Northwest VEG: Vegetarian Education & Empowerment Group	Educates and empowers people to make vegetarian choices for a healthy, sustainable, and compassionate world. Hosts monthly vegetarian potlucks, offers vegetarian mentors. All welcome, vegetarian or not.	http://www.nwveg.org info@nwveg.org 24305 NE Elkhorn Rd. Brush Prairie, WA

NAME	DESCRIPTION	CONTACT INFORMATION
One Stop Sustainability Shop	The One Stop Sustainability Shop (TOSSS) inspires, educates and supports customers who wish to make wiser purchasing choices. TOSSS sells items that are non-toxic, made of sustainable materials, fair-trade and as locally as possible for affordable prices. The store only deals with manufacturers who are environmentally and socially responsible.	1468 NE Alberta Street Portland, OR, 97211 503-241-5404 info@sustainabilitypdx.com http://sustainabilitypdx.com
Oregon Department of Environmental Quality Composting Program	Oregon Department of Environmental Quality's Composting Program website has information on permits and permit applications, recent studies on quality issues, updates on the Department's policy work, and links to lots of useful information on how to make and use compost.	811 Sixth Ave., Portland, 97204 http://www.deq.state.or.us/lq/sw/compost/index.htm compostrules@deq.state.or.us
Oregon Farmers' Market Association/Portland Farmers Markets	Find out about local markets and resources in your neighborhood.	PO Box 13272 Portland, OR 97213 (503) 525-1035 http://www.oregonfarmersmarkets.org http://www.portlandfarmersmarket.org
Oregon Food Bank (OFB)	Works to eliminate the root causes of hunger through advocacy, nutrition education, learning gardens and public education. Plant A Row for the Hungry program where community raises extra crops/garden rows to donate to local food bank.	7900 NE 33 rd Dr., Portland, OR 97211 (503)282-0555 http://www.oregonfoodbank.org
Oregon Hunger Relief Task Force	The Oregon Hunger Relief Task Force collaborates with state agencies, businesses, non-profits, public officials and local communities to end hunger in Oregon. Working with partners throughout Oregon, the Task Force promotes community awareness, compiles research, develops proposals for government action and conducts outreach to expand	4110 SE Hawthorne Blvd. Portland, OR 97214 http://oregonhunger.org/ info@oregonhunger.org
Oregon Sustainable Agricultural Land Trust (OSALT)	OSALT holds urban and rural agricultural lands in trust, keeping them in agricultural use by successive generations of growers and stewards, and serves to restore an appreciation of agriculture and to actively participate in developing sustainable agricultural practices and systems through research and education.	PO Box 1106, Canby, Oregon 97013-1106 http://www.osalt.org Contact Person: Will Newman II info@osalt.org director1@osalt.org
Oregon Tilth	Non-profit research and education organization dedicated to producing biologically sound agriculture. Hosts educational events through out Oregon and provides organic certification.	1725 SE Tenino, Portland, OR 97202 (503) 378-0690 http://www.tilth.org
Organic Portland	Resource listing of Portland-area restaurants, grocery stores, food products, catering, CSAs, clothing, pet supplies, gardening, and events that promote organic products or services.	http://organic.infinetwilderness.com/ benvolio@infinetwilderness.com Contact Person: Ben Amstutz
Organics to You	Organics to You is a locally owned and operated Portland organic produce delivery company. We've been delivering the finest, farm fresh, local organic produce and groceries since early 2001. We also offer Paperless Gift Certificates and hand delivered Organic Gift	606 SE Madison St Portland http://organicstoyou.org/ info@organicstoyou.org
OSU Extension Metro Office Program	Engagement of citizens with the University to address individual and community problems such as: Childhood hunger in Oregon, Farm Bill Forum, Master Gardener Program, Nutrition Education Programs, Food Business Education, Small Farms Program and more .	506 SW Mill St. Suite 780, 97207 (503)725-8101 http://oregonstate.edu/portlandmetro/outreach-engagement/adult-programs

NAME	DESCRIPTION	CONTACT INFORMATION
OSU Extension Master Gardeners' Calendars and Hotlines	The monthly gardening calendars are produced by OSU Extension. Each calendar provides reminders of key garden chores, such as fertilizing, pest control, planting, and maintenance.	http://extension.oregonstate.edu/gardening/calendar Master Gardener Hotlines: Multnomah Co.: (503) 445-4608 Washington Co.: (503) 821-1150 Clackamas Co.: (503) 655-8631
People's Co-op	People's is a community-owned, full line natural foods store where Everyone is Welcome.	3029 SE 21 st Avenue (503)232-9051 http://www.peoples.coop
Plate and Pitchfork	Plate and Pitchfork exists to celebrate and support local farms. This all-volunteer group hosts dinners using locally produced foods and helps attendees unravel some of the mysteries surrounding food choices. Plate and Pitchfork is committed to increasing awareness of the multiple benefits of eating local foods.	6106 SE 13th Avenue Portland 97202 http://www.plateandpitchfork.com dine@plateandpitchfork.com Contact Person: Erika Polmar or Emily
Portland Area Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) Coalition	Information and resources for joining and volunteering at local CSA's.	http://portlandcsa.org
Portland Community Gardens	32 community gardens through out the city developed and operated by volunteers and Parks and Rec staff. Sign up for a plot of land or volunteer at the gardens.	6437 SE Division St. Portland, 97206 (503)823-1612 http://www.portlandonline.com/parks
Portland Fruit Tree Project	Organizes people to gather fruit before it falls, and make it available to those who need it most. Registers fruit and nut trees throughout the city, brings people together to harvest and distribute thousands of pounds of fresh fruit each year, and teaches tree care and food preservation in hands-on workshops.	3125 E Burnside St. Portland, OR 97214 (503) 284-6106 info@portlandfruit.org http://portlandfruit.org
Portland Multnomah Food Policy Council	Citizen-based advisory council to the City of Portland to address issues regarding food access, land use planning issues, local food purchasing plans and local policies for regional food systems. Meetings are open to the public.	Steve Cohen (503) 823-4225 http://www.portlandonline.com/OSD
Portland Permaculture Guild	The Portland Permaculture Guild is an informal group interested in learning and promoting permaculture gardening techniques (a system of conscious, sustainable, ecological design) in the Portland Area. The Guild holds free monthly educational meetings that are open to everyone, as well as classes, workshops, and other activities.	http://www.thedirt.org/ppg permiegirl@aol.com
Portland Public Market	An ongoing planning effort to create a year-round permanent public market in Portland, similar to Pike Place Market in Seattle. The mission of the Portland Public Market is to operate a daily, year-round, indoor-outdoor venue to showcase the region's bounty, to promote sustainable agricultural practices, to encourage healthy eating, to provide entrepreneurial opportunities for those who produce and sell the food we eat.	www.portlandpublicmarket.com info@portlandpublicmarket.com P.O. Box 511 Portland, Oregon 97207 ron@rpaulconsulting.com
Portland Preserve	Offers 9 month classes in the art and science of food preservation on an urban farm in NE Portland.	4039 NE 14 th Ave. Portland, OR 97212 (503) 280-9895 info@portlandpreserve.com http://www.portlandpreserve.com

NAME	DESCRIPTION	CONTACT INFORMATION
Portland Yardsharing	Provides resources to the community to create gardens for generating fresh local food.	info@yardsharing.org
Salmon Safe	Salmon-Safe is devoted to restoring agricultural and urban watersheds so that salmon can spawn and thrive. Salmon-Safe certifies fish friendly farms in Oregon's Willamette Valley and has become one of the nation's leading regional eco labels with more than 50,000 acres of farm and urban lands certified.	http://www.salmonsafe.org info@salmonsafe.org Contact Person: Dan Kent 805 SE 32nd Avenue Portland, OR 97214
Sauvie Island Center	The Sauvie Island Center is a non-profit organization teaching youth and adults about farmers and the food they grow through field trips and special events. Located on beautiful Sauvie Island just outside Portland, Oregon, the Center increases food, farming, and environmental literacy in the community.	13605 NW Howell Park Rd Portland, 97231 http://www.sauvieislandcenter.org info@sauvieislandcenter.org Jill Kuehler, Sarah Brown
Slow Food Portland	The 500+ members of Slow Food Portland are a diverse group of food enthusiasts with a curiosity about food traditions and heritage, local artisanal products, sustainable agriculture and the protection of the biodiversity of our local and global food sheds.	http://slowfoodportland.com Linda Colwell: linda@slowfoodportland.com info@slowfoodportland.com
Southeast Portland Seed Bank Project	The Urban Farmers of SE Portland hope to create, through distributed and collaborative effort, varieties of crops that are well-suited to our soils, climate and farming methods in adequate quantities to meet the demand of local food security.	sePDXseedbank@gmail.com http://sepdxseedbank.wordpress.com
Southeast Portland Tool Library (SEPTL)	The SE Portland Tool Library is an all-volunteer library of home and garden tools which may be borrowed free of charge by SE Portland residents. Membership is FREE! You just have to be over 18 and a resident of SE Portland within SE Uplift's boundaries.	SE Harrison & SE 28th Ave, Portland 97214 www.septl.org
SnowCAP	SnowCap Community Charities is a philanthropic organization created to provide food, clothing, advocacy and other services to the poor.	http://www.snowcap.org 17805 SE Stark St.
St. Barnaba's Church	Holds a free community dinner on the second Saturday of each month starting at 5 pm. This dinner is meant to bring people together for food and friendship and everyone is	503.246.1949 2201 SW Vermont St.
Terra Nova Community Farm	The Terra Nova Community Farm is a Student-Run Entrepreneurial Venture located at Terra Nova High School. With the guidance of seasoned farmer Paul Hudak, the students run the day to day operations of the farm. Through their work, students earn credit in core content areas as well as electives.	(503) 577-7612 phudak@nwresd.k12.or.us http://www.tncfarm.org
Tri-County Farm Fresh Produce Guide	Coop of member growers provides nutritious farm-fresh produce for sale to local residents year-around. Offers farm stands and u-pick opportunities in Washington, Clackamas, and Multnomah counties in Oregon. Publishes a yearly guide to local sustainable food producers, involved in public education, and provides marketing assistance to producers.	http://www.tricountyfarm.org 18640 NW Walker Road #1400 Beaverton Contact Person: Albert Martinez Albert.Martinez@oregonstate.edu
Tualatin Valley Gleaners	Providing food, aid and other assistance to the low-income, disabled, children and elderly in the Tualatin Valley, Oregon area, by participating in field and urban gleaning. Food is distributed once a week through the participating efforts of its members. Quarterly newsletter: local and federal politics that affect low-income individuals, recipes and community resources.	12350 SW 5th St. Beaverton, OR http://tvgleaners.org/

NAME	DESCRIPTION	CONTACT INFORMATION
Tryon Life Community Farm	Committed to community learning, preserving common green spaces, restoring native ecosystems, and demonstrating sustainable urban agriculture and urban density living. Facilitates education regarding skills, values, and paradigms for holistic human integration into our ecosystems experience a sustainable urban ecology as possible, practical, and desirable and emerge as empowered co-creators of a well-functioning network of cultures, economies, and politics of deep change.	11640 SW Boones Ferry Rd. Portland, OR 97219 (503)245-3847 farm@tryonfarm.org http://tryonfarm.org
Upstream Public Health Advocacy Network	Upstream Public Health is a nonprofit organization dedicated to creating meaningful dialogue, engaging community, and using the tools of research and advocacy to support public policies that promote the health of Oregonians. Policy objectives: school junk food ban, Farm to School, and advancing menu labeling among major restaurant chains.	315 SW 5th Avenue, Suite 202 Portland http://www.upstreampublichealth.org/ Contact Person: Mel Rader mel@upstreampublichealth.org
Urban Edibles	A community database of wild food sources in Portland, OR.	http://www.urbanedibles.org
Urban Farm Project (now a project of OSALT)	Grows food locally within neighborhoods, shares resources and builds community. Programs include tool librarian workshops and the NE Food and Chicken Co-op.	Bob New: (971)344-0115 http://portlandurbanfarmproject.wordpress.com
Urban Farm Store	The Urban Farm Store is a (very) small company founded on our love of chickens, our other pets and edible gardening. A major part of our mission is to educate our customers so that they can be more successful urban farmers. Please see our calendar for a complete listing of classes: http://www.urbanfarmstore.com/events-calendar/	2100 SE Belmont St (503) 234-7733 http://www.urbanfarmstore.com/
Urban Gleaners	Rescues food everyday from locations throughout the Portland area and delivers it to groups that feed the hungry such as: Blanchet House, Sunshine Pantry, Friendly House, New Avenues for Youth and PEAR.	Tracy Oseran/Jane Anne Morton (503)226-8061 info@urbangleaners.org http://www.urbangleaners.org
Urban Harvest Garden	The garden is a project by the African Women's Coalition and Urban League of Portland aimed to encourage healthy eating and active living for African and African American families who wouldn't have the opportunity to garden. The garden is located on the northeast corner of N Beech St and N Albina Ave.If you think your family, or you know of a family, that would be a good candidate to participate in the garden please contact Erica Lee-Johnson at 503-893-4878 or at leejohnson.eric@gmail.com	http://www.ulpdx.org/urbanharvestgarden Inger McDowell: 503-280-2600 ext. 641 imcdowell@ulpdx.org
Wild Adventure Foods & Institute for the Study of Edible Wild Plants and Other Foragables	Provides expertise in wild edible plants and foraging through workshops, expeditions, teaching events, presentations, outdoor guiding, and outfitting anywhere in North America. Technical advising, curriculum development, and custom research services are also available. Emphasis is on the past, present, and future uses of wild edible plants and other foragables.	Wild Food Adventures John Kallas, Ph.D., Director 4125 N Colonial Ave, Portland (503) 775-3828 http://www.wildfoodadventures.com/ mail@wildfoodadventures.com
Your Backyard Farmer	Creates small sustainable organic method farms at your backdoor & provides fresh, in-season produce from your farm to your fork.	7527 SE Ramona Portland, OR 97206 (503)449-2402 farmers@yourbackyardfarmer.com http://www.yourbackyardfarmer.com
Zenger Farm	Working urban farm with youth education, community workshops, egg co-op, immigrant/refugee farmer training program and farmer's markets.	11741 SE Foster Rd. Portland, OR 97266 (503)282-4245 http://www.zengerfarm.org