

Intercultural Community Bingo

It is our hope that the Intercultural Community Bingo will inspire people to celebrate and learn more about the richness of cultural diversity in our community. Complete a row (vertically, horizontally, or diagonally) in the Bingo Card and answer the reflection questions below.

Invite a neighbor who is different from yourself to coffee or lunch	Visit a historical marker or space that honors a person or group different than your own	Try a cuisine that you have never tried before	Learn a new craft or art form that is culturally specific	Ask someone about the history of their name
Learn to say hello in three languages other than the ones you currently speak	Learn about customs and beliefs that someone different from yourself observes in the passage of life	Offer to teach your native language to someone	Learn or watch a dance style that is new to you	Visit a culturally-specific grocery store or market to explore new products
Learn a game that originates from a culture different than your own	Check out and read a culturally-specific book from the library	Write in your own idea: _____ _____ _____	Learn something new about your own cultural background	Attend an art museum that is featuring a culturally-specific exhibit
Research a historical figure from an ethnic group different than your own	Ask someone different from yourself how you can be an ally to their community	Watch a movie about a culturally-specific group that you are unfamiliar with	Engage in a discussion about overcoming your biases with a trusted friend	Cook a recipe from your cultural background or family traditions to share with someone else
Obtain a culturally-specific calendar; Learn about special dates different from your own	Go and visit one of the organizations or groups that you met at the Gathering	Listen to a culturally-specific genre or style of music that is new to you	Attend a culturally-specific community event	Read a book by an author with a different cultural background than your own

What is one thing that you learned while engaged in the Bingo activities? _____

What is one thing you will do as a next step to foster your curiosity about intercultural community? _____
